JUDGMENT AND COMMITMENT

IMPRISONMENT

The defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the United States Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of 21 months.

The Court makes the following recommendations to the Bureau of Prisons:

That the defendant be placed in either Aliceville, Alabama or Bryan, Texas, in order to be trained in cosmetology, but more importantly, the Court strongly recommends the defendant be placed in a facility that will assist in dual diagnosis treatment, and that the defendant be allowed to participate in the RDAP program

The defendant is remanded to the custody of the United States Marshal.

RETURN

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of 3 years

The defendant shall report to the probation office in the district to which the defendant is released within 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.

While on supervised release, the defendant shall not commit another federal, state or local crime.

While on supervised release, the defendant shall not illegally possess a controlled substance. Revocation of supervised release is mandatory for possession of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one (1) drug test within fifteen (15) days of release from imprisonment and at least two (2) periodic drug tests thereafter, as directed by the U.S. Probation Officer.

The defendant shall abide by the standard conditions of supervised release recommended by the Sentencing Commission.

Pursuant to Public Law 108-405, Revised DNA Collection Requirements Under the Justice for All Act of 2004, the defendant shall submit to DNA collection while incarcerated in the Bureau of Prisons, or at the direction of the U.S. Probation Office.

While on supervised release, the defendant shall not use or possess a firearm, ammunition, dangerous weapons or destructive device. Supervised release shall be revoked for possession of a firearm.

The defendant shall make special assessment, fine and restitution payments as ordered by the Court and is required to notify the Court, through the Probation Office, of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to meet these monetary obligations.

The defendant shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this Court. If this judgment imposes a restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such restitution that remains unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release. The defendant shall comply with the following additional conditions:

The defendant shall participate in and successfully complete a substance abuse treatment program approved by the U.S. Probation Officer, and abide by the rules, requirements and conditions of the treatment program. The defendant shall not discontinue treatment without the permission of the U.S. Probation Officer.

The defendant shall submit to drug and alcohol testing as directed by the U.S. Probation Officer and shall comply with specific copays imposed pursuant to district policy for failing to comply with drug testing.

The defendant shall complete a mental health evaluation and participate in treatment as recommended, to include the proper administration of prescription medications.

The defendant shall utilize only one pharmacy for obtaining prescription medications.

As a component of the defendant's treatment and testing program, the defendant shall pay a one-time fee of Two Hundred Fifty Dollars ($250.00) to partially defray the costs of treatment and/or drug testing. Monetary payments made by the defendant shall be applied to this fee only after all other court-ordered monetary obligations have been fulfilled. Payment of the fee shall be made by money order or cashier's check to the Clerk of District Court, 2120 Capitol Avenue, Room 2131, Cheyenne, WY 82001, utilizing the payment coupon provided by the U.S. Probation Office. This co-pay is waived in the event the defendant is supervised by a district other than Wyoming.

The defendant shall refrain from any use or possession of alcohol and/or other intoxicants including over the counter medications used contrary to the recommended dosage, or the intentional inhalation of any substance, prescribed or otherwise, without the permission of the U.S. Probation Officer. Additionally, the defendant shall not enter establishments whose primary income is derived from the sale of alcohol.

The defendant shall submit their person, residence, office, storage facility, or vehicle to a search, conducted by a U.S. Probation Officer at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition; failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation; the defendant shall warn any other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.

The defendant shall participate in a cognitive-behavioral treatment regimen that may include, but is not limited to, Moral Reconation Therapy, Cognitive Thinking, Thinking for a Change, or Interactive Journaling. He shall actively participate in treatment until successfully discharged or until the U.S. Probation Officer has excused the defendant from the treatment regimen.
